FICTION CATALOG

A Selected List of about 2,400 Titles
Cataloged by Author and Title with Annotations

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y. AND NEW YORK CITY
THE H. W. WILSON COMPANY
1916

PREFACE

This catalog aims only to include much of the best fiction in English of all time, together with such novels of current interest as may be in reasonable demand.

The books included are entered under both the author's name and the title, and brief descriptive or critical sentences are inserted for the twofold purpose of informing and attracting the reader.

The selection was first based upon the following lists of fiction: A Thousand of the Best Novels, compiled by the Newark Free Public Library; fiction of the A. L. A. Catalog of 8,000 Volumes for a Popular Library; fiction entered in the A. L. A. Book-list from the first number to the current number; List of 572 Novels for Adults which are purchased in Largest Numbers by American Libraries, compiled by the Book-buying Committee of the A. L. A.; fiction of the Wisconsin Free Library Commission's Suggestive List of Books for a small Library (Part I. Books for Adults, June, 1905); annual lists of Best Books issued by the New York State Library. Since the last edition of the Fiction Catalog in 1914 the entries have been revised to accord with the selected list of the St. Louis Public Library. Many new titles have been added, to make room for which within the limited number of 2,400 those books which least excite scholarly or popular interest have been dropped from the list.
